BRODY Receives GSA Schedule

Jenkintown, PA – Brody Communications Ltd., dba BRODY Professional Development (BRODY), is now a GSA contract holder through General Services Administration (GSA).

GSA establishes long-term government wide contracts with commercial firms to provide access to millions of commercial products and services at volume discount pricing. Brody's contract number is: GS-02F-188AA.

BRODY is an international training company in business for 30 years, with trainers in the U.S., Asia, Europe, South America, Australia and Canada and specializes in four key areas of communications: Presentation Power, Relationship Management, Writing for Impact and Facilitation & Meeting Effectiveness. The company has partnered with various government entities, including the Environmental Protection Agency, U.S. Army, U.S. Navy, and Department of Justice. BRODY also works with recognizable names and brands such as Aramark, Campbell Soup, Citi, Daiichi Sankyo, Genentech, LexisNexis, Pfizer, and Sanofi.

Company CEO Marjorie Brody said, "I am thrilled that BRODY will be able to expand its business and find new ways to partner with the federal government and other eligible agencies."

GSA is an independent agency of the U.S. government, established in 1949 to help manage and support the basic functioning of federal agencies and oversees $66 billion of procurement annually. GSA supplies products and communications for U.S. government offices, provides transportation and office space to federal employees, and develops government-wide cost-minimizing policies, and other management tasks.

BRODY is also certified as WBE (Women-owned Business Enterprise) through by the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC) and the Women's Business Development Center in Philadelphia.
